VOSS NAMED SITES CONSULTANT FOR NATIONAL ARTS ENDOWMENT PROGRAM

MISSOULA--

Dennis Voss, assistant professor of art at the University of Montana, has been named a sites consultant for the artists-in-education program of the National Endowment for the Arts.

Voss is a member of the National Endowment artists-in-education panel, which meets three times a year in Washington, D.C.

As a regional consultant, he will make on-site evaluations of the artists-in-education program administered by the state arts councils in North Dakota, Wyoming, Washington and Idaho. He will visit the coordinator of the program in each state as well as the school administrators, teachers and artists involved.

Voss has served as a resident artist in the Montana Arts Council artists-in-schools/communities program.

He is a former resident of Chadron, Neb., and Hay Springs, Neb. His parents, Richard O. and Vivian Voss live in Hay Springs.
